About The Data

This publication provides a summary of Alberta's international trade statistics for 2008, with sections for exports by industry and exports by region. A profile is also included for each country that imported more than $30 million of goods from Alberta in 2008. Each profile provides a chart tracking Alberta's total exports to the country since 1995, Alberta's top 20 export products and Canada's top 10 export products in 2008. Export totals are also provided for each U.S. state including and excluding energy products.

Because service exports are not currently available for provinces on a country-specific basis, in this report "exports" refers only to exports of goods, except in the introductory "Year in Review" section, which includes an estimate of Alberta's global services exports. Additionally, "exports" refers to "domestic exports"—those grown, extracted or manufactured in Canada—and does not include "re-exports"—goods imported into Canada and minimally processed but not substantially enhanced in value before being exported again.

Most of the trade statistics in this report are based on the internationally standardized Harmonized System (H.S.). The H.S. system is administered by the World Customs Organization and organizes all traded goods under a standardized six-digit, logically ordered numeric coding system. This system is used by more than 190 countries and forms the basis for customs tariffs, W.T.O. or bilateral free trade negotiations and international trade statistics. The H.S. system is used in this report for all reporting of exports based on products. Sector and Industry-based export statistics in this report, though, are based on the North American Industry Classification System (N.A.I.C.S.), which was adopted by Canada, the United States and Mexico in 1997 to provide common definitions of the industrial structure of the three countries and a common statistical framework to facilitate the analysis of the three economies. Because of technical differences in how trade statistics are tracked with the H.S. and N.A.I.C.S. systems there may be small differences in reported exports depending on the system used.

Export data in the country profile tables is presented at the H.S. 6-digit level. Product descriptions have been shortened to fit the space available. Full product descriptions can be found in Statistics Canada's "The Canadian Export Classification 2009" at: http://www.statcan.ca/english/tradedata/cec/index.htm.

Statistics Canada is the main source of information on goods trade for this publication. Estimates for service exports are developed by Alberta Finance and Enterprise based on special surveys conducted by Statistics Canada. Information on GDP growth and forecasts come from the International Monetary Fund World Economic Outlook (April 2009), unless otherwise noted.

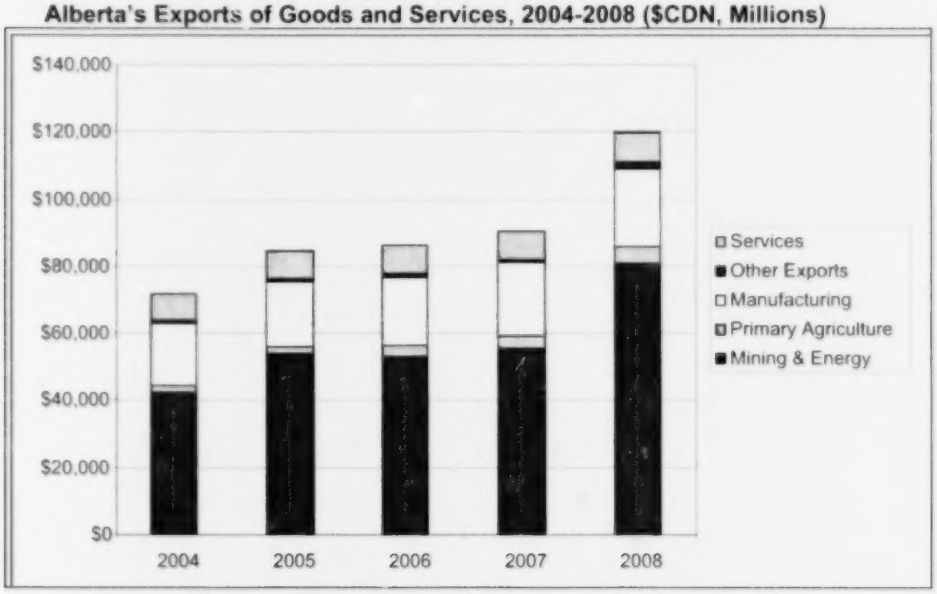
The Year In Review

2008 was a dramatic year for global trade and for the global economy, generally. The first half of the year was characterized by strong growth in the value of global trade, while the second half of the year was characterized by an equally dramatic decline. On the whole, the year was a good one for Alberta and its exports, with initial gains more than compensating for the subsequent fall in commodity prices and export values. However, 2008 is likely to stand as the high water mark for Alberta's exports, in the near term.

Alberta exported a total of $118.5 billion worth of goods and services in 2008, an increase of 31% over the previous year. Exports of goods increased 34% to $109.9 billion, while the export of services fell by 0.2% to $8.6 billion. In 2008, Alberta's top export industries were mining and energy, manufacturing (particularly chemicals, food and beverages, and machinery) and primary agricultural products. Alberta goods were imported by 192 countries in 2008. The top five export markets (in order) were the United States (U.S.), China, Japan, the European Union (E.U.) and Mexico.

Alberta's Exports of Goods and Services, 2004-2008 ($CDN, Millions)

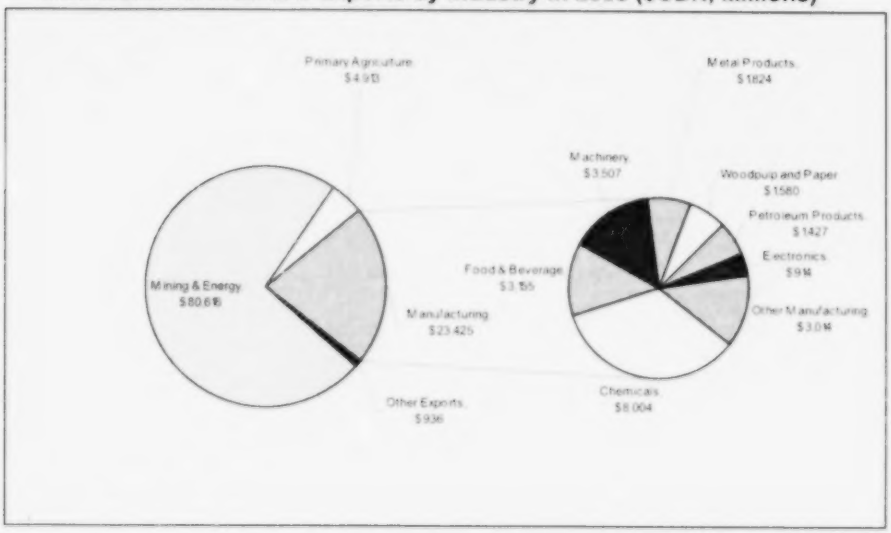


A summary of Alberta's exports by industry and by global region follows.

Alberta Exports By Industry

The value of Alberta's good exports grew 34% from $81.9 billion in 2007 to $109.9 billion in 2008. The Mining and Energy Sector accounted for 73% ($80.6 billion) of Alberta's total goods exports. Excluding energy and mining products, Alberta exported $29.3 billion of other goods, up 11% over the previous year.

Distribution of Alberta's Exports by Industry in 2008 ($CDN, Millions)



As mentioned above, Mining and Energy Sector exports totaled $80.6 billion in 2008. Exports from the sector were composed of mostly crude oil ($47.8 billion or 59% of the total) and natural gas ($30.2 billion and 37% of the total). The value of crude oil and natural gas exports grew at 69% (up from $28.2 billion in 2007) and 15% (up from $26.3 billion in 2007) respectively. The change in prices of crude oil and natural gas outpaced the growth of shipments significantly.

Manufacturing was Alberta's next most important export sector in 2008. Manufacturing accounted for a total of $23.4 billion in 2008, up 7% over the previous year. Exports of chemicals grew 12% from $7.2 billion in 2007 to $8.0 billion in 2008. Machinery exports were the fastest growing in the sector, at a rate of 30% from 2007 to 2008 ($2.7 billion to $3.5 billion). Exports of machinery were typically products or parts for the oil and gas industry. Food and beverage manufacturing was the third most important export industry. Exports for food and beverages grew from $2.7 billion to $3.2 billion, up 16% from 2007. Primary metal exports declined from $2.3 billion to $1.8 billion. Woodpulp and paper exports grew 17% to $1.6 billion in 2008.

The Primary Agriculture export sector grew from $3.7 billion to $4.9 billion in 2008, at a rate of 33%. Livestock exports shrank 20% to $673.4 million. Crop exports increased 48% to $4.2 billion in 2008. The large increase in export value for crops can be explained by high commodity prices throughout 2008.

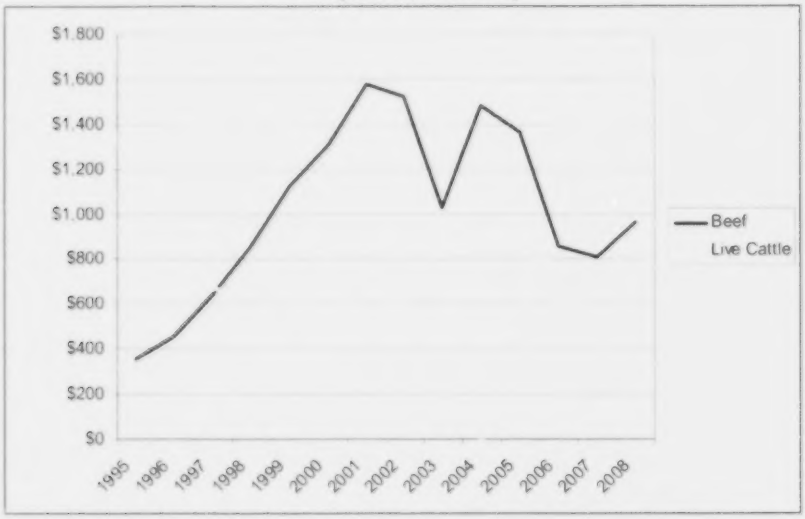
Crops grew significantly in 2008 with wheat up 48% to $2.1 billion, canola seeds up 71% to $1.6 billion, and canola oil up 7% to $486.9 million. The value of these products rose quickly from 2007 to 2008 and can be attributed to rising prices. The price of wheat, the most important agricultural export product, increased 63% from 2007 to 2008 while export volume shrank 9%. Canola prices and export volume increased 38% and 24% respectively. Canola oil export volume declined 29% despite a price increase of 50%.

Processed meat exports grew 14% in 2008 to $1.5 billion, but livestock did less well, with the value of exports falling 21% overall, to $608.4. Beef and cattle remain the largest respective components of these two export categories. Frozen or fresh beef was worth $960.9 million total, up 19%, while live cattle shrank 22% to $558.4 million. The chart below illustrates the long-term trend of these two industries since 1995.

Alberta's Exports of Live Cattle and Fresh and Frozen Beef 1995-2008 ($CDN, Millions)



In 2008 exports of fresh or frozen pork shrank 2% to $329.1 million while the value of live swine shrank 7% to $50.0 million. In the case of processed pork, export volume decreased 12% and prices increased 12% from 2007 to 2008. The price for live swine declined 8% while the export volume grew 1%. Exports of swine and pork products are expected to decline significantly in 2009, owing to the inaccurate linking of pork products with the H1N1 influenza outbreak.

Mining and Energy

Alberta's exports from the Mining and Energy Sector increased 45% to $80.6 billion in 2008, up from $55.5 billion in 2007. Mining exports were diversified in their destination markets in 2008 while 99% of energy exports were destined for the U.S.

Crude oil exports to the United States increased 71% from 2007 to $47.8 billion in 2008. The average prices of crude oil increased 59% over the same time period. Exports of natural gas increased from $24.7 billion in 2007 to $28.1 billion (up 13%). The following table shows price, volume and value data for Alberta's exports of crude oil and natural gas to the United States in 2007 and 2008.

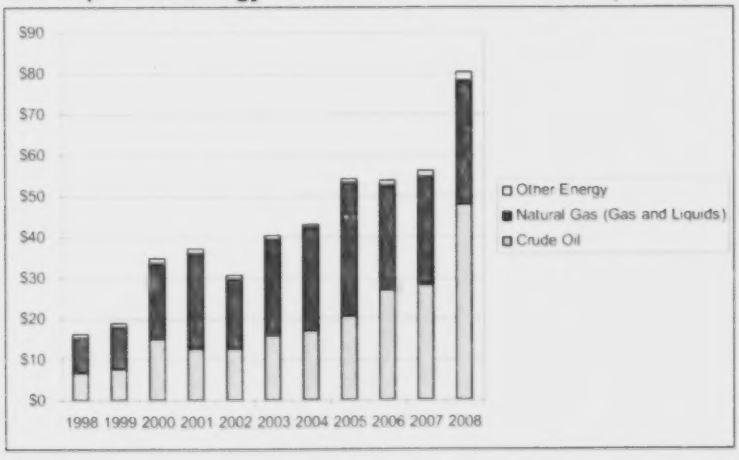
Alberta's Exports of Energy Products to the United States ($CDN, Billions)



Coal exports grew rapidly, at a rate of 63%, from 2007 to 2008 (reaching $660.2 million) while the average price for coal increased 64% over the same period. In 2008 Japan was the largest market for Alberta coal products and absorbed $311.9 million of the total (48%). The second most important market for Alberta's coal in 2008 was the United States at $148.1 million. South Korea ranked third at $88.8 million.

Exports of Alberta's sulphur grew 306% from $466.8 million in 2007 to $1.9 billion in 2008. Sulphur, which is a by-product of the oil and natural gas industries, benefited from high average prices which increased 351% from 2007 to 2008. China, the United States and Brazil were the most significant export markets for sulphur at $649.5 million, $394.2 million and $305.5 million, respectively.

Manufacturing Alberta's Manufacturing Sector exports rose by 7% to $23.4 billion in 2008. The Manufacturing Sector made up 80% of Alberta's exports excluding the Energy Sector. Chemical manufacturing was the largest proportion of this and accounted for $8.0 billion (34%) of all manufacturing in 2008. Machinery followed at $3.5 billion, up 30% from 2007. Food and Beverages manufacturing ranked as Alberta's third largest manufacturing export. Food and Beverages produced $3.2 billion in 2008, up from $2.7 billion in 2007.

Primary metals, computer and electronic products, and wood products all declined significantly from 2007 to 2008. Primary metals shrank 21% to $1.8 billion. Computer and electronic products shrank 16% from $1.1 billion to $914.2 million. Wood products, such as furniture, fell 31% from 2007 to 2008 ($886.3 million to $615.0 million). This decline is most likely due to the decline in U.S. housing starts (the market for most of Alberta's wood and wood products), and weakening lumber prices.

Woodpulp and paper exports increased from $1.4 billion in 2007 to $1.6 billion in 2008 (up 17%). In the woodpulp and paper industry, woodpulp grew 18%, from $1.2 billion in 2007 to $1.4 billion in 2008. Newsprint exports grew 21% to $129.9 million and represented the fastest growing export in this industry. Exports of paper shrank 37% in 2008, down from $42.2 million to $26.8 million. Woodpulp and paper exports increased 17% from $1.3 billion to $1.6 billion. The U.S. absorbed nearly all of Alberta paper exports in 2008 at $179.1 million.

Exports of wood and prefabricated buildings shrank to $556.3 million and $55.1 million respectively. The United States consumed $518.4 million (down 33%) of Alberta's wood exports and $37.2 million (down 25%) of prefabricated buildings exports in 2008.

Chemicals

Exports of chemicals from Alberta increased from $7.2 billion in 2007 to $8.0 billion in 2008, up 12%. In 2008 plastic, principally ethylene, was Alberta's second most important export sector after energy at $3.8 billion. The U.S. consumed $3.1 billion of Alberta's plastic exports, up from $2.8 billion in 2007. China followed the U.S. as the second largest importer of plastics. Plastic exports to China grew 0.8% from $255.3 million in 2007 to $257.3 million in 2008. Exports to Mexico, the third most important market for Alberta's plastics, shrank to $110.2 million.

Organic chemicals ranked as Alberta's fourth most important export sector. In 2008 organic chemicals accounted for $2.6 billion worth of exports, down from $2.7 billion in 2007. Exports of organic chemicals to the U.S., the most important market for Alberta's chemicals, grew from $1.5 billion to $1.6 billion from 2007 to 2008. China absorbed $869.7 million in 2008, down 19% from 2007. Within the organic chemicals category, exports of ethylene glycol (antifreeze) accounted for $1.2 billion of the total, down from $1.3 billion in 2007. The most important market for ethylene glycol in 2008 was China at $869.4 million. Other significant exports included acyclic hydrocarbons ($552.6 million) and styrene ($530.3 million). Both export products were destined almost entirely to the U.S.

Alberta's exports of fertilizers, such as urea and ammonium nitrate, were worth $823.4 million in 2008, up 63% from $504.9 million in 2007. The large gain in export value was due to significant price increases over the time period. Exports of fertilizers were mostly destined for the U.S. which absorbed 91% of the total ($751.5 million).

Inorganic chemical exports grew from $457.7 million to $771.3 million in 2008 (up 69%). Ammonia accounted for the bulk of inorganic exports in 2008 at $662.7 million, up from $338.9 million. The average price for ammonia doubled from 2007 to 2008 and was responsible for the large increase in export value.

Machinery

Alberta's exports of machinery increased from $2.7 billion in 2007 to $3.5 billion in 2008. Alberta companies have become increasingly specialized in the manufacture of machinery products and parts that aid the extraction energy products internationally. Boring and sinking machinery exports grew 52% from 2007 to $1.2 billion in 2008. Exports of pump for liquids and their parts increased 0.4% in 2008 to $355.3 million. Air pumps and compressors grew 19% in 2008, from $275.5 million to $327.5 million. Alberta's exports of centrifuges and filters were the fastest growing in 2008 at 121%, up to a total of $181.6 million.

Products in these industries can be divided into three categories; computers (H.S. 8471), electrical machinery (H.S. 85) and precision instruments (H.S. 90.) Exports of Alberta's computer and computer components grew 0.3% from $53.9 million to $54.0 million in 2008. Electrical machinery exports shrank 18% from $771.7 million in 2007 to $634.1 million. Telephone equipment made up the biggest proportion of electrical machinery exports at $151.0 million, down 43% from $263.5 million in 2007. Radar and radio-navigation equipment exports rose 9% from $57.8 million to $62.9 million. Alberta's precision instrument exports shrank 6% from $620.5 million in 2007 to $585.0 million in 2008. Surveying and geophysical equipment made up a significant portion of this category, at $194.2 million in 2008, down 19%. Other top exports were instruments for physical analysis and for measuring flow, which increased by 16% and 20% (to $130.7 million and $65.0 million) respectively.

The U.S. was the largest destination for Alberta's computers, electrical machinery and precision instruments in 2008. Exports of electrical machinery to the U.S. shrank 27% from $509.3 million to $362.2 million. Exports of precision instrument shrank from $394.9 million to $369.9 million while computer equipment exports increased from $34.9 million to $37.7 million in 2008

The United Kingdom absorbed $35.5 million of Alberta's precision instruments in 2008, up 2% from $34.9 million. Electrical machinery exports to the United Kingdom shrank 29% from $41.0 million in 2007 to $28.9 million in 2008. Exports of computer equipment to the United Kingdom increased from $1.4 million to $2.0 million.

Alberta exports to China were $22.6 million of precision instruments, $26.3 million of electrical instruments and $0.8 million of computer equipment in 2008.

Alberta Exports By Region

It should be no surprise that North American Free Trade Agreement (N.A.F.T.A.) countries continued to be Alberta's largest export market in 2008 at $97.7 billion. The United States accounted for $96.6 billion of total exports, with energy the dominant export product. Overall, energy exports accounted for $79.5 billion, approximately 72% of total exports to the U.S. The price of energy increased significantly in this period and was the reason why the value of energy exports reached such high levels. Alberta's exports in the Asia-Pacific region continued to increase from $6.6 billion in 2007 to $7.8 billion in 2008. Japan replaced the E.U. as the third most market for Alberta goods, a return to the historical norm. The E.U. is now ranked as Alberta's fourth largest market.

Following is a report on Alberta's exports by region with key countries for each region highlighted. Please see the Market profiles in the Appendix for detailed export statistics on individual countries.

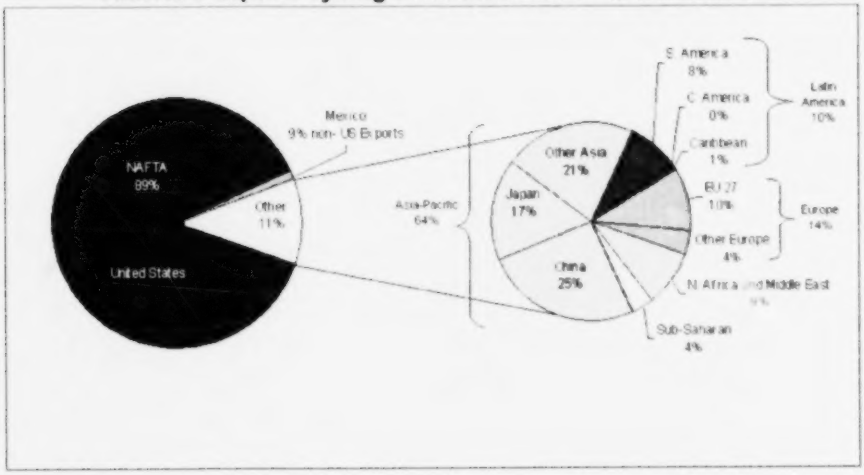
Alberta's Exports by Region in 2008: Total = $109.9 Billion



North America

North America is Alberta's most important trade region and accounted for 89% of total Alberta exports in 2008. Merchandise exports to N.A.F.T.A. partners were valued at $97.7 billion, up 36% from 2007. 99% of Alberta's North American exports were destined for the U.S.

Energy products accounted for 81% of Alberta's exports to North America ($79.5 billion). Crude oil made up 60% ($47.7 billion) of energy exports in 2008 while natural gas accounted for 35% ($28.1 billion). Other energy products, such as petroleum gases and oils made up the remainder.

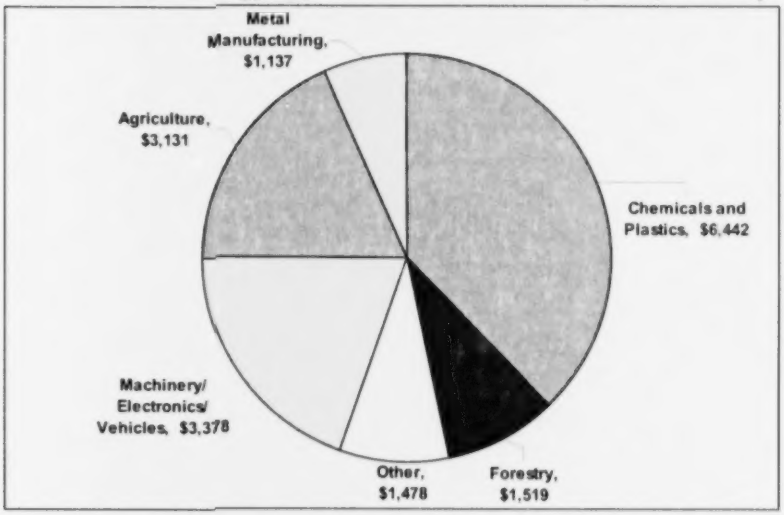
United States of America

The U.S. was Alberta's single largest trading partner in 2008 at $96.6 million (88% of Alberta's total exports). Therefore, the economic situation in the U.S. has much bigger implications for Alberta than that of most countries. The International Monetary Fund (I.M.F) reported that the U.S. economy grew by 1% in 2008 and is expected to shrink by 2% in 2009.[1] No growth is expected in 2010.

Energy was the largest export to the U.S. in 2008. Exports of energy grew 43% from $55.8 billion to $79.5 billion. The large increase in export value was due to rapid increases in energy prices. See the Mining and Energy Sector section for tables and charts illustrating volume and pricing trends. Overall, the quantity of crude oil exports, the largest export product to the U.S., shrank during 2008. However, with compensatory energy price increases, the value of crude oil exports grew 71% to $47.7 billion. Natural gas was the second most important export product to the U.S. and grew from $24.7 billion to $28.4 billion, or 14%, in 2008. Liquefied petroleum grew 28%, from $1.4 billion to $1.8 billion. Since August of last year, prices have declined considerably, and it would be unrealistic to expect that the value of energy exports will increase in 2009.

Alberta's non-energy exports to the U.S. increased to $17.1 from $15.1 billion in 2006 (up 13%). A breakdown of these exports, by sector, is provided in the following chart.

Alberta's Non-Energy Exports to the U.S. in 2008 ($CDN, Millions)



[1] International Monetary Fund World Economic Outlook 2009

Agricultural exports rose 19% from $2.6 billion in 2007 to $3.1 billion in 2008. Alberta's exports of meat products to the U.S increased by 13% to $879.9 million and were the largest agricultural exports in the sector. Live animal exports shrank from $777.0 million to $615.1 million. Cattle were the largest component of live animal exports in 2008, at $558.1 million, down from 2007 when live cattle accounted for $711.6 million of exports. Exports of cereals (such as wheat, barley and oats) doubled from $225.8 million to $459.7 million in the 2007 to 2008 period. The increase in value can be attributed to both rising prices and larger export volumes from Alberta. Exports of canola and canola oil also increased substantially, to $218.5 million (up from $107.1 million) and $193.3 million (up from $123.7 million). The value for canola and canola seeds increased rapidly, largely due higher prices for those products.

Exports from Alberta's forestry sector declined 10%, from $1.7 billion to $1.5 billion, from 2007 to 2008. Exports of wood and lumber declined from $779.1 million to $518.4 million or 33% from 2007 to 2008. Woodpulp and paper exports were worth $747.2 million and $171.1 million respectively in 2008. Housing starts in the U.S. have fallen since the start of the year and it is expected that exports from the forestry sector will decline.

Chemicals and plastics continued to be Alberta's most important non-energy export to the U.S. in 2008. These exports grew from $5.4 billion to $6.4 billion (up 18%) from 2007 to 2008. Alberta's exports of plastics to the U.S. increased 3% to $1.6 billion. Fertilizers and inorganic chemicals are also significant export products to the U.S. and accounted for $755.5 million and $702.4 million respectively.

Metal and metal goods shrank from $1.2 billion in 2007 to $1.1 billion in 2008. Iron and steel were the largest export products in this sector at $736.8 million down from $811.4 million in 2007. Of this, the majority of iron and steel products were tubes and piping. Exports of aluminum shrank from $143.9 million to $130.4 million between 2007 and 2008.

In the machinery/electronics/vehicles sector, Alberta's exports rose from $3.1 billion in 2007 to $3.4 billion in 2008, largely on the basis of growth in machinery exports. Machinery exports were worth $2.4 billion in 2008, up 23% over the previous year. Alberta's exports of precision instruments shrank from $394.9 million in 2007 to $362.2 million in 2008. Exports of vehicles for the oil and natural gas sector also shrank, from $221.1 million in 2007 to $191.0 million in 2008. Electrical machinery exports continued to decline in 2008 to $369.9 million from $509.3 million in 2007. Electrical machinery exports have been declining since 2000, when they peaked at $4.5 billion.

Overall, commodity prices are expected to weaken in 2009 and will result in smaller export values.

It is difficult to identify the final destination for Alberta's exports to the U.S., since goods are frequently shipped on to new locations following their recorded arrival in the U.S. Oil and natural gas are particularly difficult since those goods are moved via pipeline, making it difficult to track the final destination. However, the data can be used to identify states that are the most important for Alberta in terms of access.

Excluding global oil and natural gas exports (and excluding the U.S. as a whole), Texas was Alberta's second largest global export market after China at $2.6 billion in 2008. California ranked as Alberta's fourth most important market for non-energy exports after Japan, followed by Mexico, Washington and Illinois.

Alberta's non-energy exports to Texas, the most important market in the United States increased by 12% to $2.6 billion in 2008, up from $2.3 billion in 2007. Machinery, mostly oil and natural gas equipment and parts, was the largest export product to Texas from Alberta and accounted for $994.3 million in 2008, up 31% from 2007 levels. Plastics exports accounted for $469.9 million in 2008, up from $434.3 million in 2007. Iron and steel products ranked third and were composed mostly of piping.

Non-energy exports to California stayed constant from 2007 to 2008 at $1.6 billion. The most important exports in 2008 were organic chemicals, meat, and plastics at $274.6 billion, $235.7 billion and $230.7 billion, respectively.

Illinois was Alberta's third largest non-energy U.S. market and accounted for $916.4 million in 2008, up 10% from 2007. Plastics were the most important export at $234.6 million in 2008, up 4% from $224.9 million in 2007. Organic chemicals were the next largest export product to Illinois in 2008. Exports of organic chemicals shrank from $221.9 million in 2007 to $212.8 million in 2008. Sulphur exports increased from $8.4 million to $64.7 million in 2008.

Alberta's exports to Washington State, the fourth most important U.S. market for non-energy products, grew from $753.5 million in 2007 to $861.5 million in 2008. Live animals (mostly cattle) were the most important exports to Washington in 2008 at $280.0 million. Exports of inorganic chemicals (primarily ammonia) to Washington grew 128%, from $42.5 million to $96.9 million. The third most important export product from Alberta to Washington was fertilizer, which grew in value from $27.4million to $61.4 million (124%) from 2007 to 2008.

Mexico

Mexico's economy expanded by 1% in 2008 and is expected to shrink 4% in 2009 before resuming growth in 2010 at a rate of 1%. Mexico's economy is heavily reliant on the U.S. as a market. Thus, Mexico's economy is not expected to recover until the U.S. economy does.

Alberta's exports to Mexico grew from $720.0 million in 2007 to $1.1 billion in 2008 (up 51%). Canola made up the largest proportion of this total at $339.2 million in 2008, up 82% from $186.3 million. The second most important Alberta export products in 2008 were parts for boring or sinking machinery Exports of boring and sinking machinery grew from $21.1 million in 2007 to $147.1 million in 2008. Meat cuts ranked as Alberta's third most important export product and shrank 2% to $112.9 million in 2008.

Recent changes in Canadian visa requirements for Mexican citizens could negatively impact trade between the two countries for 2009.

The Asia-Pacific region was the next most important regional market for Alberta goods after North America. Exports to the region are expected to decline in 2009 in light of weakening global demand for goods and a shrinking manufacturing sector.[2]

Overall, real GDP growth varied between 0.1% (Taiwan) to 9% (China) in 2008. Japan's GDP shrank by 0.6% while South Korea and Australia both grew by 2% in 2008. China is expected to grow by 7% in 2009 and 8% in 2010. Japan is expected to shrink by 6% in 2009 before beginning to grow again in 2010 at a rate of 0.5%. The South Korean economy is forecast to shrink by 4% in 2009 and resume growing in 2010 by 2%.

Canada has been pursuing free trade negotiations in the region, notably the Canada-South Korea free trade agreement (F.T.A.) and a Canada-Singapore free trade agreement, though these negotiations seem to have stalled. Discussions are taking place with India to evaluate the benefit of a Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (C.E.P.A.). Canada has concluded or is negotiating Foreign Investment Promotion Agreements (F.I.P.A.'s) with various countries in the region, including China, India, Indonesia and Vietnam.

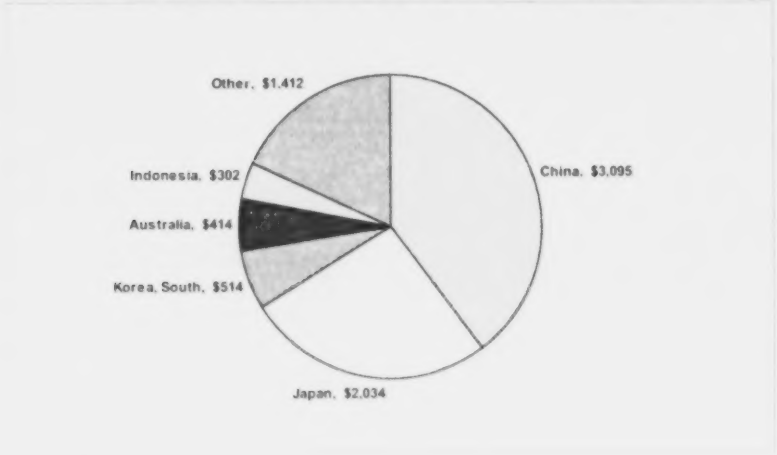
[2] Export Development Canada Forecasts- Spring 2009

Exports from Alberta to the Asia-Pacific region grew 18%, from $6.6 billion in 2007 to $7.8 billion in 2008. Alberta was the second largest provincial exporter to the region. British Columbia exported $11.0 billion in 2008, up 24% from 2007. Canadian exports to the Asia-Pacific region grew 20% to $38.3 billion in the same time period.

China was the largest market for Alberta exports in the Asia-Pacific during 2008 and absorbed $3.1 billion worth of goods (40% of total exports to the region). From 2007 to 2008, exports to Japan increased 39%, from $1.5 billion to $2.0 billion. South Korea was the third most important market in the region in 2008, at $514.3 million.

Top exports to the Asia-Pacific region included canola seeds, ethylene glycol, and sulfur. The value of canola seeds exported to the region increased significantly, due to increases in both price and the volume of shipments. Japan and China were the biggest regional consumers, at $557.9 million and $323.2 million respectively. Ethylene glycol was the next largest export product in 2008 to the region, at $898.4 million (down 21% from $1.1 billion in 2007). China consumed nearly 97% of these exports. The third largest export to the region in 2008 was sulphur, exports of which grew from $314.8 million in 2007 to $876.0 million in 2008. Australia ($163.3 million) and China ($649.5 million) were the two largest importers of Alberta sulphur. The good performance of sulphur exports can be attributed to a significant increase in price from 2007 to 2008.

Distribution of Alberta's Exports to the Asia-Pacific in 2008 ($CDN, Millions)



China

China's economy grew at a rapid pace in 2008 – by 9%, according to the I.M.F.. Since 2004, the average growth rate of China's economy has been above 10%, and it is expected to continue to grow by 7% and 8% in 2009 and 2010 respectively. China is expected to weather the global recession better than most Asian-Pacific economies since it has proportionately less trade in terms of GDP. Strong fiscal spending has also helped China avoid the worst of the global economic slowdown.

China was Alberta's most significant export market, excluding the U.S., in 2008. Over the last five years Alberta's exports to China have grown 62%, from $1.9 billion to $3.1 billion. Alberta was the largest provincial exporter to China in 2008.

The most significant product exported to China from Alberta was ethylene glycol, which is used primarily as anti-freeze or coolant. China consumed $869.3 billion of Alberta's ethylene glycol exports in 2008, down 18% from $1.1 billion in 2007. Sulphur and canola exports from Alberta have substantially offset this loss, however. Exports of sulphur increased from $255.4 million to $649.5 million from 2007 to 2008. Alberta's exports of canola seed grew 239% from 2007 to 2008 (from $95.1 million to $322.7 million). Unwrought nickel was the second largest export product in 2007, at $304.2 million, and shrank 23% to $234.7 million in 2008, ranking fourth. Ethylene polymers grew in value by 30% to $203.3 million in 2008 and were the fifth most important export product.

Japan

The Japanese economy shrank by 0.6% in 2008 and is expected to shrink by 6% in 2009 before resuming growth in 2010 at 0.5%. Japan was Alberta's third most important export market in 2009. Alberta's exports to Japan grew by 39% in 2008, from $1.5 billion to $2.0 billion.

Alberta's most important export to Japan in 2008 was canola. Exports of canola seed grew 60% to $557.9 million in 2008. Coal was the second most important export from Alberta to Japan in 2008. Coal exports grew 146%, from $126.5 million in 2007 to $311.9 million in 2008. Cobalt, the third largest export to Japan from Alberta, grew from $144.6 million in 2007 to $192.4 million in 2008. The positive export performance in 2008 can be attributed mostly to rising prices. Prices for canola seeds, coal and cobalt increased by 39%, 133% and 26% respectively. It should be noted that the quantity of these products also increased, though not as quickly as the prices.

Pork, which had been the second largest export product to Japan in 2007, did not grow as quickly as other products in 2008 and is now the fifth most important product at $104.1 million. Exports of pork products are expected to decline in 2009 due to the H1N1 influenza outbreak affecting the market.

South Korea

South Korea's economy grew by 2% in 2008, down from 6% in 2007. In 2009 the South Korean economy is expected to shrink by 4% and then in 2010 to grow at a rate of 2%.

The Canada-South Korea free trade agreement has been under negotiation since July 2005. To date there have been thirteen rounds of negotiations with the last occurring in March 2008. Access for Canadian agricultural exports, including beef, is an important component of the negotiations for Alberta. South Korea was the third most important export market for Alberta in the Asia-Pacific region at $514.3 million, up 11% from 2007. In 2008 Alberta was the third largest provincial exporter to South Korea. The largest product Alberta exported to South Korea in 2008 was chemical woodpulp at $127.9 million. Chemical woodpulp exports to South Korea grew 26% from 2007 to 2008. This was followed by coal, which grew from $66.4 million in 2007 to $88.8 million in 2008. Winches, newly introduced into the South Korean market, ranked as the third most important export product in 2008, at $36.5 million.

Europe and C.I.S.

The economies of Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States (C.I.S) are expected to shrink in 2009 but are expected to recover and begin growing again in or after 2010.

As a whole, the European Union was Alberta's fourth most important export market; however Alberta shipped only 4% the Canadian total, down from 5% in 2007. Overall, Alberta exports to the E.U. decreased by 27% in value in 2008, to $1 2 billion.

Nickel was the province's largest export to the E.U. and accounted for 23% of all exports in 2008. Alberta exports of nickel to the E.U. shrank 47% to $395.3 million in 2008. The decline in export value for unwrought nickel can be attributed to the weakening prices of nickel in the latter half of 2008, despite an overall increase in quantity shipped.

Ranked second and third were machinery ($171.3 million) and cereals ($157.9 million) respectively. Turbo-propellers were the most significant product in the machinery sector and accounted for $68.2 million in 2008. The export value of cereals grew at rate of 13% from 2007 to 2008, which was due to significant increases in average pricing. Alberta exports of medical instruments to the E.U. ranked fourth in 2008, up from its 2007 ranking of sixth. This is largely due to declines in the export value of cobalt ($51.6 million) and electrical machinery ($47.3 million), which now rank fifth and sixth respectively.

Overall, Alberta's top twenty export sectors shrank by 25%, while other Albertan exports shrank more rapidly at a pace of 52%. The fastest growing sector in 2008 was pharmaceuticals, though this makes up less than 1% of total Alberta exports to the region.

Netherlands Historically, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and Belgium have served as points of entry for Canadian goods and do not necessarily represent the final destination.

The Netherlands was the largest destination for Alberta exports in the E.U. Overall, the Netherlands economy grew by 2% in 2008 and is expected to shrink by 5% in 2009. In 2010 the Netherlands economy is expected to shrink by 0.4%.

Exports to the Netherlands fell 40% in 2008. Nickel remained the dominant export product from Alberta in 2008. Exports of nickel shrank 40% from $453.2 million to $273.0 million, but still accounted for 79% of exports to the country. The second largest export product to the Netherlands was cobalt at $22.4 million.

United Kingdom The United Kingdom economy grew by 1% in 2008 and is expected to contract by 5% in 2009. In 2010, the economy of the UK is expected to neither grow nor shrink. The UK is second largest destination for Alberta exports in the EU, but these exports shrank in value by 15% in 2008.

Wheat was Alberta's most significant export to the UK in 2008, growing at a rate of 15% to $57.9 million. The biggest contributing factor to the positive growth rate was the increase in the price of wheat. From 2007 to 2008, the price of wheat grew 47% while the overall volume of exports to the UK declined.

In 2008, Alberta exports of machinery ranked second ($36.3 million, down 19%), medical instruments third ($35.5 million, up 2%) and electrical machinery fourth ($28.9 million, down 30%).

Belgium The Belgian economy grew by 1% in 2008 and is expected to shrink at a rate of 4% and 0.5% in 2009 and 2010 respectively.

Belgium was Alberta's third largest trading partner in the E.U. in 2008 with exports totaling $172.6 million (down 26%). Nickel exports from Alberta are down 48%, from $144.4 million to $74.8 million (2007 to 2008 respectively). Weak prices for nickel in the latter half of 2008 resulted in significant declines in export value.

Following nickel, cobalt was the next significant product exported to Belgium, growing from $28.2 million in 2007 to $29.2 million in 2008. Woodpulp and cereals followed at $22.2 million and $16.7 million in 2008.

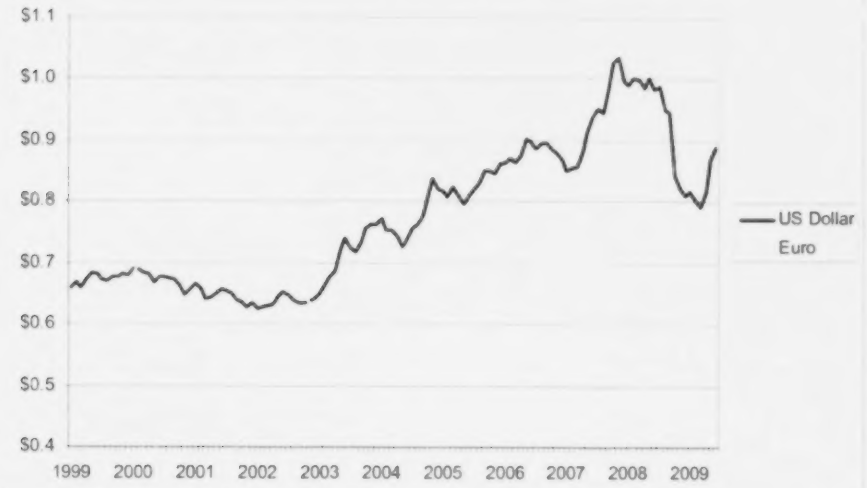
The Global Economy

Exchange Rates: Canadian Dollar to U.S. Dollar and Euro
(Source: Bank of Canada)



In 2008 the Canadian dollar devalued from near parity with the U.S. dollar to approximately $0.90. Generally speaking, this was good for Alberta's exports. Commodities, such as oil, are denominated in U.S. dollars. A relatively high Canadian dollar makes Canadian goods less competitive internationally, decreasing their demand. A decrease in the Canadian dollar relative to the U.S. has the opposite effect and makes Canadian goods more competitive (relatively cheaper to buy). A high dollar is beneficial from the perspective of Alberta consumers purchasing goods imported from the U.S. The demand for oil drove up prices in 2008 and, as a result, Alberta's exports increased despite the high Canadian dollar.

Global economic growth is expected to be negative in 2009 but recover in 2010. The volume of world trade is also expected to shrink, but at a much faster rate than world GDP as the global demand for goods evaporates. Trade volumes are expected to resume growing in 2010. The International Monetary Fund predicts that strong fiscal and monetary measures will minimize the impact of the recession in advanced economies. East Asian and Latin American countries will be particularly hard hit, as East Asian economies rely heavily on the export of manufactured goods and Latin America economies rely on commodities.
